Pantzer Says Campus Chapel Still Planned

Executive Vice President Robert Pantzer said yesterday that the Endowment Foundation will continue its plans to build a religious center here. The board now plans to get estimates from contractors of the construction expense.

The date of construction has not yet been decided. The religious center will include a campus chapel.

The Foundation also decided to continue supporting the worthy scholar program already in effect. Under this program, outstanding Montana high school graduates will be offered a one year, full fee scholarship on a competitive basis, Pantzer said.

The Foundation, under president A. T. Hibbard, proposed to make amendments to the Foundation's bylaws. It was proposed that the board of trustees be increased from 12 to 21 members, and that the officers of the Foundation be made members of the board of trustees. Pantzer said the reason for this was the increasing amount of work that the board must do.

The Foundation receipts from July 1, 1957, to June 30, 1958, show a total of $140,994 handled by the Foundation. Since it is a non-profit, educational organization, this money is largely tax-free. It is given as gifts and grants to the University.

Foreign Fellowships Available

Applications for fellowships and information on summer tours abroad are now available in Dr. Vedder Gilbert's office LA 115.

The Institute of International Education Programs is offering Smith-Mundt grants for graduate study in eight Latin American countries. The scholarship program includes round trip air travel, orientation in Washington, D. C., and tuition and maintenance for the academic year.

Applicants must hold U.S. citizenship, a Bachelor's degree by departure date, and have sufficient knowledge of Spanish for study and daily life. Deadline for applications is February 1.

Three student tours for the summer of 1959 have also been announced by the Lisle Fellowship, Inc. They will include tours to the Soviet Union, Israel and Mediterranean countries, and Europe.

Applications for the U.S.-USSR Exchange Program are due February 1. Student groups will be the official guests of the Communist Youth Organization.

Students will leave the U.S. in mid-June and return during the first week of September.

Qualifications are a minimum of two years of college, a maximum age of 30, background knowledge of international relations, participation in college or community activities and group experience.

The tour of Israel and Mediterranean countries includes visits to major Italian cities, an audience with Pope John XXIII, and trips through South-Eastern Europe, Istanbul and Jerusalem. Departure

MSU Lutherans Invited To Lead Ronan Services

Lutheran Student Association has been invited to conduct the 11 a.m. service Sunday at the Ronan Lutheran Church. Students participating in the service will meet at 532 University Avenue at 8:30 a.m.

Mert Johnson, LSA president, will give the liturgy and Richard Sayer will deliver the sermon.

MSU's History to Be Topic Of LA Club's First Meeting

J. W. Smurr, history and political science instructor, will speak on "The History of the University" at the Liberal Arts Club's first meeting of the year, Monday at 7:30 p.m. in LA 104.

Smurr's talk, to be followed by discussion, is intended as an introduction to a series of meetings this quarter on the "Future of the University."

Townpeople are invited to the Monday evening meetings as well as students, according to Smurr, who is chairman of the Liberal Arts Club programming committee. Smurr said that audience participation in the discussions will be "necessary, not merely welcome, since that is the whole point of the series."

Stressing the fact that the club's meetings will be in the evening, Smurr said, "We want to attract working men and women and housewives who cannot get to the campus during the daylight hours. Naturally, we hope for a good student-faculty turnout as well."

The series of discussions is designed to help students, faculty and townspeople understand the problems of the University, "with the idea of preventing some of the misunderstandings which have cost the institution so much in the past," Smurr said.

Speakers scheduled for the Monday evening sessions are Smurr; Robert Pantzer, executive vice president of the University; Henry Shearer, director of the Bureau of Business and Economic Research; Edwin Briggs, professor of law; Leslie Fiedler, professor of English; and Ted Hulbert, editor of the Montana Kaimin.

J. W. SMURR

Among the topics to be discussed are history, finance, politics, research problems, faculty self-government, the qualifications of University presidents, and student self-government.

Meetings will always be at 7:30 p.m. in Room 104 of the Liberal Arts Bldg., unless announced otherwise, Smurr said.

With Smurr on the club committee are Profs. Vedder Gilbert, Gilbert Dyer, Thomas Martinsek and Ralph Yalkovsky.

Why A Chapel?

The University Endowment Foundation, meeting this week in Helena, continued planning for the proposed campus religious center, which will include a chapel and religious offices and meeting rooms.

It's perhaps a little late to ask this question, but does the University really need a religious center (much less a chapel)? Or more, couldn't the money donated toward the chapel fund be diverted in a more useful direction at this time?

The let's-build-a-chapel idea was one that was forced upon many students, faculty members and alumni in the first place. After all, who can object to having a house of religion on campus? Those who would have voiced opposition would not have remained popular long.

The chapel and religious center scheme was one which was designed to impress parents and wealthy alumni. Their contributions are welcome, of course, since they represent interest in the University's well-being.

But there are urgent needs facing the University at present. The influx of students in coming years will be greater and greater. Montana's educational budget is in a state of crisis. The urgent need of the University is for classrooms—not a religious center.

There is, of course, a moral obligation to those who have contributed specifically for the construction of the proposed religious center. But many—probably most—would willingly have their donations used for an equally important purpose. Those who can influence opinion on this matter should not act from fear or hesitation. If the religious center proposal seems unsound in retrospect, this is the time to decide on a better use for available funds.

Simple Explanation

After less than 400 students voted in Wednesday's primary election for an ASMSU vice president, comment came from some corners of the campus bemoaning the lack of spirit, apathy, etc.

The explanation of the low turnout is really very simple, though. Central Board really never does anything of import; why should anyone be interested?

Just as a suggestion, one requirement might be placed on all Central Board members. Which is that they should be required to attend C-B meetings, at least part of the time. As it is, many C-B members don't seem very interested in student government. But then again, why should they?

Swimmer Shies Away from Credit

To the Kaimin:

If you intend to gripe about swimming team depth, the least you could do is mention the members that have stuck it out. Perhaps a better way of saying it is—how about the "gluttons for punishment?"

Three guys don't make anything, not even a relay, and I (speaking only for myself) feel embarrassed for hogging a column inch about nothing. Coach Bud Wallace bemoans, as usual, about "outstanding talent." Well, don't you think it would be tactful to mention the outstanding talent? The following names are of loyal, hard-working, team-spirit builders, terms that boil down to "guts."

Dayne Veeneman, Sprints and Relays; Ralph Fitzpatrick, Sprints and Relays; Doug James, Backstroke and Relays and Chet Jolly, Distance and Breaststroke.

Each member listed here won at least one event against UBC and WW. In the future, I recommend giving recognition to the commendable efforts put forth by wonderful guys and workers and assets to Montana State University.

BOB MCKINNON

Kaimin's Note: Wednesday's Kaimin gave the results of each team member against British Columbia and Western Washington College of Education. Coach Wallace said the present team is the best Montana has ever had. He "bemoans" the fact that he does not have more swimmers, since the team cannot win the Skyline crown with only first-place victories. Wallace did not imply that the team consisted of three good men. He said he had eight good men.

Graduate Student to Play Carillon Concert Sunday

Don Stagg, a graduate student from Butte majoring in education, will present a program of carillon music from the tower of Main Hall Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

The program will include selections from Bach, Beethoven, Greig and Romberg.

Visitors will be welcome in the tower during the concert, Stagg said.

Young Democrats To Meet in Helena

A delegation from MSU's Young Democrats Club and their adviser Paul Carter, assistant professor of history and political science, will meet with representatives of other Montana colleges in Helena February 6-7, according to president Ed Dotson.

The agenda calls for a dinner and informal meetings between the young Democrats organizations. While in the state capitol, the delegates will attend sessions of the state legislature and talk with their party representatives.

Dotson said the two day meeting is part of an extended program to bring closer relations and co-ordination with other Democrat groups in colleges throughout the state.

Grizzlies to Meet High Scoring Aggies

By BOB REAGAN

The Grizzlies embark today for tomorrow's encounter with the high scoring Aggies at Logan, Utah.

For a victory the Grizzlies must accomplish two things: maintain their defensive average at 65.8, and increase the team's offensive punch by three points to 66.3.

The first task ranks as quite an obstacle against Utah State's offensive average of 80.3. But Wyoming scored 76 points and BYU scored 77 points in their losing encounters last week. This could indicate a porous defense.

Hard Punch—Weak Chin

That this weakness could exist might be shown by examining the Aggies' defeat at the hands of the front-running Redskins. The Redskins, the top defensive team in the Skyline, held the Aggies to 71 points in winning by 11. Montana is third on defense.

TERRIFIC SKI BARGAIN!

Owner moved to warmer country, no longer has use for skis. Top condition, hardly used. One pair ANDERSON-THOMPSON laminated skis with metal poles and safety bindings, only $45. One pair WILSON skis with downhill bindings and metal edged poles—a steal at $20. See them at 1652 S. 6th St., or call George Mellinger, LI 9-3331

The second task is far simpler. The team can improve its free throw accuracy or it can commit fewer fouls. The Grizzlies rank sixth in free throws and second in fouls.

Removing the Plug

Of course, neither one of these goals is absolutely necessary. The team could start hitting from the field; Dan Balko and Dave Shelby could pull out of their mild slumps. Even these few points could spell victory.

Coach Cox might reshuffle his lineup now that Darrol Dunham has a fractured finger. The Grizzlies, second in rebounds, could miss Dunham's rebounding average of 13 per game.

Expectant Aggies

The Aggies will be up for this game. They know Utah beat both themselves and Montana, but the Grizzlies lost in the waning minutes of the Utah game by two points, 61 to 59, whereas the Redskins dumped them 82 to 71.

GIANTS SIGN ANTONELLI FOR UNDISCLOSED AMOUNT

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants announced today that pitcher Johnny Antonelli had signed his 1959 contract with the team and will report with the rest of the squad at Phoenix on Feb. 22 for spring training.

The 28-year-old southpaw won 16 games last season and lost 13. In his National League career, he has won an even 100 games.

Terms of the contract were not disclosed.
